

Resources from program April 10, 2012

Google

www.google.com

Google Books

<http://books.google.com>

Google News Archive

<http://news.google.com/newspapers>

Newspaper partnership program has been discontinued, but content remains still searchable.

Fulton Postcards

<http://www.fultonhistory.com>

Over 18 million pages of digitized historical newspapers, mostly New York State. Free to use.

Chronicling America

<http://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov>

America's historic newspapers pages from 1836-1922. Search almost 4 million pages for free from the Library of Congress.

Newspaper Archives

Subscription required. Available online and in library Genealogy Room, and other libraries.

Internet Archive

<http://www.archive.org>

Free to use, has a lot of genealogy related matter:

<http://archive.org/details/genealogy>

You Tube

Colonel Roosevelt is invited to fly in Arch Hoxsey's plane at St. Louis, Mo., 1910
3 min. 31 sec.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yllpDwMKzJo>

Teddy Roosevelt's historic ride. Library of Congress.

<http://memory.loc.gov/mbrs/trmp/4087.mpg>